FOCUS I am asking for your help in choosing the next priority project in change management, offering three options that would have a major positive impact

57% (4) Asynchronous meetings
28.5% (2) Exclusive on-boardings
14.5% (1) Memorable internal communication
0% (0) Other

FINAL DECISION
ASYNCHRONOUS MEETINGS

FINAL THOUGHTS

MAIN INSIGHTS

- Ana Hijar I propose asynchronous meetings to speed up the hybrid work, and avoiding unnecessary meetings and allowing us to focus on other tasks.
- Alex Dantart Memorable internal communication is key to effective change management in a company.
- Mike Right I have more than 5 reporting meetings per day. My vote is for asynchronous meetings without a doubt.
- JL Pascual I hesitated between on-boarding and meetings but after looking at my calendar I have no doubt.
- Nerea Sanchez On-boardings are key. I experienced a disastrous one at another job and ended up changing companies in less than 6 months.
- Nacho Alvir Asynchronous meetings. I'd like to know what it's like to have quality time so I can work more efficiently!
- Daniel Vecino Let's offer the right welcome to our team to ensure valuable professionals and create a unique and memorable employee experience.

1. The critical project of greatest value will be asynchronous meetings to save time and generate quality

2. I have taken into account all your options and comments to decide which project to carry out.

3. Let's generate together a change in the corporate culture with the implementation of the new project chosen.
